When the lads from the fallows of Salem Flats descended upon the Land of Busch and blighted the fond hopes of last season's runners-up over the trail, Manager Griffin let out one hole in his belt, increased his chest expansion in relative proportion and prepared for a repast during his inspection of the Crater. That was some days ago. After the Griffthian mental debauch we journeyed across and were handed in almost like proportions the same treatment by Petersburg that Roanoke had served them. Now we have Roanoke very much to the nervous, with no hope left but of taking the final engagement this afternoon.

Bad Day for Game.

It was no kind of a day for a ball game. That isn't quite the proper sort of an introduction, but when the umpire fails to arrive and there is persistent and continuous bombardment from the celestial sprinkling can, bogging the blazed ways and converting the inviting green into lakelets, keeping back the militants until something after 5 o'clock, the explanation is not only fitting, but necessary. But Pressly was after a game of ball and forced the Harvey Brooks Wins Over Newport News, With Splendid Support of Team.

Newport News, Va., May 16 .- Sensational fielding behind Harvey Brooks enabled Petersburg to take the second game of the series from Newport News by fast fielding and a perfect throw, Blackstone nailed Gasmier at the plate. Powell then hit a terrific drive to right, which Simmons stabbed with one hand, ending the rally. Applegate pitched steadily all the way, but slow fielding lost him the game. Score:

New York Arthur Shafer, shortstop of the New York National League team, falled to report for to-day's game with Pittaburgh, and the club's officials believed to night he had quit the team. According to the players Shafer had been morose of late, refusing to converse with them, and was also incensed because Manager McGraw last Saturday removed him to the outfield, putting Fletcher in his place at short.

Secretary Foster said inquiry since Shafer absented himself showed that the player two weeks ago shipped his automobile babek to his home in California. Vesterday was pay day for the team, and apparently Shafer waited for this before quitting. While Manager McGraw has reason to believe Shafer still is in the city the player did not communicate with his club, By his action Shafer has automatically violated his playing contract. Secretary Foster said. Shafer is known to be wealthy.

Mayor Ainsite heard extended argument yesterday on the pending theatre ordinance which was submitted to him yesterday for approval by City Clerk Hen T August. The ordinance, designed primarily to prevent the licensing of a theatre proposed to be erected on Twenty-flitch Street near Jefferson Avenue by M L. Mr. Hofhelmer was represented by John A. Cutchins, Rev. W. Asbury Christien, D. D. Rev. J. J. Wicker and others spoke for the ordinance.
